

Aros Glasgow
Anniesland MSYP
candidate presentation

About me:

- My name is Aros I am 15 and I am a candidate for Glasgow Anniesland Scottish youth parliament.
- I have been part of pupil leadership groups at school
- I enjoy video games because they bring out creativity and problem solving skills plus they are fun
- I've also built my leadership, team building and adapting skills through the army cadet force
- I was also part of the young Scot DEI panel which worked on my collaboration skills

My issues:

Equalities

Youth work

Education

Why you should vote for me:

- I am a confident speaker and leader
- I believe in making change and making that change known
 - I understand struggling with mental health and school
 - I believe no one should be left behind in school and life skills
